SOUTH RICHMOND HUSTINGS COURT OPENS FOR SEPTEMBER TERM

Large Docket of Criminal and Civil Follows Ruling of Assistant Attor-Cases Will Face Judge Wells To-Morrow.

Justice Maurice Again Continues Cases Against Negro and Men Alleged to Have Bought Brass Stolen From Railroad.

A large docket of criminal and civil cases will be heard during the September term, which begins to-morrow in Hustings Court, Part II. Judge Ernest H. Wells has summoned a special grand jury to consider six criminal cases. They are Alonza Jones and William Taylor, colored, charged with feloniously assaulting Policeman M. J. Moore: Lloyd Goode, colored, charged with stabbing William Jefferson, colored; Thomas Cheatham and David Hill, charged with theft, and Austin Gibson, who appealed from a fine of $100 in Police Court, Part II.

The case of the alleged footpads is the most important to be heard. Officer Moore was attacked by two men several months ago at midnight near Powhatan and Railroad Streets. After knocking him down his assailants seized his revolver and threatened his life. ber term, which begins to-morrow in Lighting Is Completed.

All the electric light fixtures have been installed on Mayo Bridge, and the current will be turned on this week. Four ornamental globes are attached to each concrete post. They will give an abundance of light, and will make the bridge a brilliant display at night from both shore and river.

Cases Continued Again.

Owing to the absence of two important witnesses for the Commonwealth, the cases of Samuel Murphy, colored, charged with stealing a quantity of brass from the Atlantic Coast Line Railway Company, and L. L. and W. F. Bishop, Jr., alleged to have received stolen goods, were continued for ten days by Justice Maurice yesterday morning in Police Court, Part II.

To-Day in Southside Churches.

Rev. Wesley Baker, pastor of the Porter Presbyterian Church, announces he will preach a series of sermons on "God's Choice of Men," for the purpose of answering many questions on the method of the Lord's choosing men. He will preach this morning on "God's Eternal Decree." His evening theme will be "Three Whys and Their Answers." The Christian Endeavor Society, which was disbanded for the summer, will be reorganized this evening at 7:15 o'clock.

Rev. John G. Scott will conduct regular services this morning at Meade Memorial Episcopal Church.

Rev. Frank W. Long will preach this morning on "The Slings and the Slinger," and to-night on "The Gospel for Itichmond Men."

At Decatur Street Methodist Church Rev. R. M. White will conduct the morning services. The congregation will worship to-night in union services at Central Methodist Church.

DEATH OF BOY IS KEPT SECRET FROM CORONER

TAYLOR SCORES

Hospital Authorities Charged With Suppressing All Information of Affair for Ten Days and of Failing to Report Death.

Coroner Taylor yesterday called the PETERSBURG, VA., September 19.—
In accordance with the decision of the Assistant Attorney-General of the State that the regular indees and State that the regular indees and the suffering from bodily injuries, made no mention of his presence there to the police, and it was only after he had died and the Board of Health had been asked for a permit to ship his body that the fact of his death became known.

The Board of Health refused to grant the permit, and at once notified Coroner Taylor that the boy was dead. The hospital, not only neglected to inform the police that Smith was in the hospital, but it is stated also failed to inform the coroner of his death. Coroner Taylor emphasized the fact last night that the authorities in charge of the institution also main-

WOMAN INJURED WHEN CAR STRIKES AUTOMOBILE

A big five-passenger automobile, bearing the Maryland license tag No. 7435, was almost demolished at Eighth and Grace Streets about 11:30 o'clock last night when struck by street car No. 1924 of the North First Street line. A woman, who gave her name to the police as Mrs. Thomas H. Gorsuch, of Haltmore, was slightly injured. She was at first hurried to Grace Hospital, where it was learned she was not seriously injured as had been thought, and she was then taken to the home of friends with whom she is stopping.

In the car at the time of the accident were Mrs. Gorsuch, her husband and John F. Stevenson, also of Baltimore. Neither of the men was injured. Although the machine was badly damaged none of the occupants was knocked from the car and this fact is regarded as being responsible for their escape. The machine was going west along Grace Street when the street car proceeding north along Eighth, hit th. At this point the machine was crossing the excavating now in progress in the street. There is a hole between the tracks on each side of the ties and the machine was knocked into the one in advance of the street car. Both front wheels crumpled, the hood was knocked off and the forward portions of the machine suffered considerably.

A physician who was in the vicinity rendered assistance to Mrs. Gorsuch before the arrival of Dr. J. Fulmer Bright.
